General Information:

Who may go on this tour: In the past, many companies sent groups of employees, service providers or clientele on the Premiere Classe. Though it is very popular with individuals as well.

It is a casual but stylish tour. One call and all your transport, accommodation, business and leisure requirements are taken care of.

The current maximum number of passengers on the Cape Town luxury train is 126 and the Durban train tour is 72, consisting of 2-bed compartments & 1-bed coupes.

When travelling on the Premier Classe train you are treated and pampered. All the fine cuisine meals on the train are included in the tour price, as well as welcome drinks & snacks and bedding. All drinks and expenses of a personal nature are for your own account. This is travelling by train like in the 'olden days'!

Dress: Casual yet stylish

Tour dates: Some dates have been set for the rest of 2008. Any company or group interested in tours for the remainder of this year and 2009 should contact us and we'll arrange accordingly.

Bookings: Contact our offices (speak to Jolene) and allow us to determine your travelling needs to enable us to compile a suitable train tour package to address those needs.
